SUPPORT LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS

(Mr. ETHERIDGE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ETHERIDGE. Mr. Speaker, it is with a heavy heart that I rise on behalf of the people of North Carolina to call for aggressive action to crack down on juvenile violence.

Just 2 weeks ago two teenage brothers, in a stolen vehicle on I-95 outside Fayetteville shot and killed two North Carolina law enforcement officers with a military style AK-47 assault rifle. The victims were a state trooper, Ed Lowry, and Cumberland County sheriff's deputy David Hathcock, gunned down in the line of duty. The authorities in Harnett County arrested these culprits after an extensive chase.

Like my North Carolina neighbors, I was shocked and appalled by this senseless tragedy that has shattered the community and taken these two heroes' lives. Trooper Lowry was a 23-year veteran of the patrol, and Deputy Hathcock had been on the force for 17 years. More than 3,000 mourners attended the memorial services to express sympathy to the victims' families.

Mr. Speaker, law enforcement officers put their lives on the line day in and day out to keep our streets and neighborhoods and communities safe from these types of juveniles and thugs. Police officers need our help and support as they do their increasingly difficult job.

In the name of Ed Lowry and David Hathcock, I call on this Congress to pass tough and smart legislation to help these brave men and women fight juvenile crime.

LOCAL JUDGE'S RULING VETOES SCHOOL CLEAN-UP

(Mr. ROGAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ROGAN. Mr. Speaker, last weekend the city of Washington witnessed a wonderful phenomenon on the mall. A million men came from all over the country for the "Promise Keepers" rally to pray for their wives, their children and for their nation's leaders. But even more remarkable was the fact that thousands of these men—carpenters, painters, and electricians—decided to leave something more tangible behind.

According to the Washington Times, 2,000 Promise Keepers went to Taft Jr. High School—the most dilapidated school in Washington, and turned it into the cleanest. The incredible thing is that thousands more men wanted to go into every single dilapidated school in Washington, D.C., paint them, clean them, and repair them so they would be fit for our children to occupy. Unbelievably, a local superior court judge in Washington named Kaye Christian prevented them from doing it.

Today, Mr. Speaker, children all over the District of Columbia are going into some of the most substandard schools in our country, and the parents of those children have a right to know from that judge why she did not heed President Clinton and Colin Powell's call for volunteerism. She should have let those children be educated today in schools that are clean, safe and fit for occupation. Because of her order, a great opportunity to do something for needy children was lost.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS HAVE MADE THIS NATION STRONG

(Ms. DELAURO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, with nine out of every ten children in America attending public schools, Democrats understand that we need to rebuild and reform our public schools, not destroy them. Yes, our public schools have problems, some serious problems, but we should not dismantle public education in this country.

Public education has been the great equalizer allowing youngsters from every social stratum, from every economic background, whatever gender, to be able to realize their potential and their God given talents.

My colleagues on the other side of the aisle have a plan that would drain funds from America's public schools, put that money into private schools and private education. Speaker GINGRICH wants to impose this experimental voucher program on school districts all across this country.

We have a message for the Speaker: Our children are not his guinea pigs. Democrats will not allow this experiment to go forward.

It is our public schools that have made this Nation strong. It has put the American dream within reach of all of our children and Democrats want to improve and not destroy America's public school system.

VICE PRESIDENT GORE WARNS OF OVERPOPULATION

(Mr. LEWIS of Kentucky asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LEWIS of Kentucky. Mr. Speaker, Vice President AL GORE warned the other day that overpopulation fosters global warming. He suggested expanding birth control and abortion programs in developing countries would help reduce the environmental threat. Noting that Third World nations are producing too many children too fast, in addition to too much pollution, Mr. GORE said it is time to ignore the controversy over family planning and cut out-of-control population growth.

This is the man that says there is not enough spotted owls, there is not enough trees on the planet, but we have too many children being born. What is wrong with this picture? Too many children being born in the Third World nations.

He said one way that we can cut the child mortality rate in this speech was by aborting them before they could be born. Again, what is wrong with this picture? Kill them before they are born so we can cut child mortality rates?

I think Mr. GORE is in real trouble with that kind of argument.

INVEST IN PUBLIC EDUCATION; NOT A PRIVILEGED FEW

(Mr. LEWIS of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LEWIS of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, there is nothing more important than our children's education. That is why Democrats want to invest in our classrooms, our teachers, our crumbling school buildings and in our children's future.

Since they came to power, Republicans have vowed to cut education. Now they propose taking millions out of public education and putting it into vouchers, allowing a privileged few to attend private schools. We should not punish the many to help a privileged few. That is not right, it is not fair, it is not just. That is why Democrats will continue to stand. We will continue to fight for quality education for every child.

Abolish the Department of Education, end the school lunch program, cut funding for education, and now divert money to private schools. That is the Republican education plan. Is it any wonder the American people do not trust their children's education in the hands of Speaker GINGRICH?
